

12. John Anderson

Robert Burns
trans. Wilhelm Gerhard

ROBERT SCHUMANN
Op.67 no.5

Langsam [Slowly]

S. p

A.

1. John An - der-son, mein Lieb! Wir ha - ben uns ge - seh'n, — wie
 2. John An - der-son, mein Lieb! Wir klom - men froh berg - auf, — und
 1. John An - der-son, my jo, when we were first ac - quaint; — how
 2. John An - der-son, my jo, we climbed the hill to - geth - er, and

T. p

B.

5

ra - ben-schwarz dein Haar, die Stir - ne glatt und schön, die Stir - ne glatt und schön! Nun man - chen hei - tern Tag be-grüss-ten wir im Lauf, be-grüss-ten wir im Lauf. Nun ra - ven - black your hair, your bon - ny brow was brent, your bon - ny brow was brent; but ma - ny hap - py days had with each o - ther, had with each o - ther. Now

9

Glät-te nicht, noch Lo - cke der schö-nen Stir - ne blieb, der schö-nen Stir - ne blieb, doch ab-wärts Hand in Hand, — froh wie's berg - auf uns trieb, froh wie's berg - auf uns trieb, und now your brow is bald, John, your locks are white as snow, your locks are white as snow; but we must tot - ter down, — and hand in hand we'll go, and hand in hand we'll go, and seg - ne Gott dein schnee-ig Haupt, — John An - der-son, — mein Lieb!

13

 un - ten sel - 'ges Schla-fen - geh'n, — John An - der-son, — mein Lieb!
 bless - ings on your frost - y head, — John An - der-son, — my jo.
 sleep to-geth - er at the foot, — John An - der-son, — my jo.

p